1. El Mirasol. El Mirasol has been going strong since 1967, and the experience shows in every succulent bite. Unlike places like La Cabrera, which are unapologetically steak obsessed, El Mirasol is a varied menu, and there's plenty of attentive staff around to talk you through the different cuts (and help you pair them with a good Mendoza red).

On the one hand, it's performance art. It's the best kind because it's intentional and so it's self-aware as art being created for art's sake, but it's infused with fantasy, role-playing, and a deep desire to time-travel, self-invent, imaginatively recreate reality, or at least become the embodiment of a timeless energy that lives in the hyper-oxygenated air of feeling that one has ...
