Book Review: Makara - A Taste of Freedom | A's Love Diary

His heart beating so powerfully, it was almost exploding right out of his chest. Responding to her words, he retreated, but only a little, her musky scent hypnotically holding him close. He'd never been with such a gorgeous woman before. And here, on the grass, under the trees, with a cool, sparkling river flowing past, Makara was in paradise.

And no, they don't actually pump it into the air vents. The smell is truly unparalleled: first, a base of rich browned butter, with notes of caramelized brown sugar, yeasty bread, and fragrant, warm cinnamon. Today, that distinctive baked-good aroma wafts through over 1,200 stores worldwide, with a total of 1 billion (yup,...
