The Wto Anti Dumping Agreement

If a company exports a product at a price lower than the price it normally charges on its own home market, it is said to be “dumping” the product. The WTO Agreement does not regulate the actions of companies engaged in “dumping”. Its focus is on how governments can or cannot react to dumping — it disciplines anti-dumping actions, and it is often called the “Anti-dumping Agreement”.

Safeguards in a nutshell. The objective is to give the industry a temporary breathing space to make necessary adjustments - safeguards always come with an obligation to restructure.. Unlike anti-dumping and anti-subsidy measures, safeguards do not focus on whether trade is fair or not, so the conditions for imposing them are more stringent.. The EU has to show that the increase in imports is:
